This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject Business economics - Personnel and Organisation, grade: 80 - very good, University of Leeds (Leeds Business School), course: Interpersonal Communications, 26 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: As the world is more and more becoming a global village, meaning that goods, people and ideas move more easily and frequently between places, it has become of great importance for successful businesses in the international arena to employ a range of staff that are able to communicate effectively with people from different national and cultural backgrounds. It has been said that effective communication is the hallmark of dynamic, productive leadership (Fisher, 2002). Furthermore, a dynamic leader is one who not only takes responsibility for what he or she says, but for how it is heard and experienced by others. By definition, communication is the exchange of thoughts, messages or information. More importantly however, our oral communications are revelations of who or where we are in any given moment, whether directly or indirectly expressed. An effective communicator is...
