For this no foreign language is required; a further study of English, natural science and mathematics, may be substituted for it. HOW TO CATCH IT We have noticed that professors and presidents in colleges and universities, mayors of cities, and others of high rank have helped to make it fashionable to go to Plattsburg. N. Y., ostensibly in order to get the experience and the point of view of the soldier at first hand and to subject themselves to some wholesome self-discipline; but it looks suspiciously like a conscious but covert attempt to catch the preparedness microbe: it gives them a basis and a background for expressing themselves later in harmony with the great wave of preparedness which has...
