Master too many masters, Vesudevea agrees to be interviewed by a local reporter about the ancient teaching and his lifes work. Ferryman to both rich and poor; transporting travelers across the river, and helping others embrace a timeless, spiritual Reality. During their interview, the ancient ferryman introduces the reporter to spiritual learning; transporting him to a world within a world. A Reality that is always changing, yet, Singular and transcendent; built upon preconceptions and conditioned thoughts. Shattering them one after another, in the Light of Truth. Join us. Let Vesudeva guide you. Offering this ancient, spiritual teaching, in an updated form; your journey across the timeless river is presented in layers. Wherein each layer, like a days events, can be viewed separately or combined to form a larger work. What Readers Had to Say The Ferrymans Dream is an exciting, creative, imaginative and informative journey into the heart of consciousness. It is a wonderful story that will open your heart and mind. A must read!-- Stephen Taus, MD, Ranchos Palos Verdes, CA The poetry intertwined in the story is timeless wisdom and uplifting to the spirit. Reading this book you are sitting on the riverbank sipping mint tea and eating raspberries with Emil. You can feel the river slipping past the bank, time is suspended, and daily concerns are gone. It is simply tea, raspberries and the divine spirit. -- Rhonda Thaut, Washington, IA The Ferryman invites us to sit beside him by the water and listen to our own inner voice of wisdom. Redirecting us from what may seem to be an overwhelming task of understanding the meaningpurpose of life. -- Figen...
