

Caught Between Life Death: The Most Precious Thing You Have to Leave Behind Is Yourself

By Marcia P. Cole

Tate Publishing & Enterprises. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 148 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.3in. x 0.6in. What are you leaving behind for others to remember you by A life insurance policy Perhaps a family heirloom In Caught Between Life and Death, Marcia Cole, believing herself on death's edge, writes her will. Her son, Danny, has just returned from the hostile Iraqi desert and announces his newfound career choice. Is this purpose guiding him or something else Concerned for her son's obsession to be part of Hollywood's rich and famous, the author looks deep within her own frailties to leave behind something more valuable than just a life insurance policy and some family heirlooms. Inspired by her son, the author cleverly finds a unique way of leaving behind a part of herself through a tale of wealth, poverty, and faith. In an attempt to give her son a new perspective on money, power, and fame, in her will she tells the story of her encounter with her boss and co-workers, all of whom represent different economic worldviews and socio-economic classes. Glimpsing into these three lives, Cole reveals these men's philosophy, which is tested, only to fail. As their lives intertwine with...
