Healthy Life Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ABOUT THE BOOK The book contains seventy-four children s sermons for all occasions. Pastors, homeschoolers, parents who often lead family devotions, or other storytellers will find these stories, along with comments about props and how to prepare and present them, to be an invaluable asset in reconnecting with the simplest, most profound truths of Scripture, and then to envision how best to communicate these so even a child can understand them. A great gift for holidays, birthdays, or special events. FROM THE BOOK In The Clockmaker chapter, Aram describes bringing to the sermon the pieces of a clock in a shoebox, and then shaking it long and hard to see if the clock could put itself together. When it didn t, he proposed shaking it harder, and longer. But the kids told him the clock needed a person to put it together. Oh! he said. So what you re telling me is that in order to have a clock, you need a clockmaker, right? Okay, so let me ask you this. How did this beautiful world come into existence? Did it just happen by chance? [No!, they shouted.] Of course not! Just as a clock tells us that there must have been a clockmaker, so the world tells us that Someone must have made this - that it couldn t have just happened by chance. Who made the world? That s right - the answer to every children s sermon: JESUS! ABOUT THE COVER The author with one of his favorite Palm Sunday props, Firecracker, who carried Aram down the aisle many times, to the delight of children and adults, alike. FROM THE AUTHOR The purpose...
