The executive summary public law involving the Roman public law. it is quite different with the previously published volumes. Previously published volumes. the Roman public law has been discussed only in law origins Series 1.1 and Series 2.2B crime. The reason why the Roman public law come together to form a single Series publication. aimed at a broader. more comprehensive display of Justinian Corpus Juris contains rich content. Indeed. since the 11th century. the scholars of the University of Bologna rediscovered since the Corpus Juris more research it contains the private law norms. but on the other hand. more than a century. many jurists have it contained a large number of public...
