Oxford University Press Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, American Higher Education in Crisis?: What Everyone Needs to Know, Goldie Blumenstyk, American higher education is at a crossroads. Technological innovations and disruptive market forces are buffeting colleges and universities at the very time their financial structure grows increasingly fragile. Disinvestment by states has driven up tuition prices at public colleges, and student debt has reached a startling record-high of one trillion dollars. Cost-minded students and their families-and the public at large-are questioning the worth of a college education, even as study after study shows how important it is to economic and social mobility. She also discusses faculty tenure and growing administrative bureaucracies on campuses; considers new demands for accountability such as those reflected in the U.S. Department of Education's College Scorecard; and questions how the money chase in big-time college athletics, revelations about colleges falsifying rankings data, and corporate-style presidential salaries have soured public perception....
