Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Pigwick continues his journey of blunders. The portfolio he holds is immaterial for him for making his contribution. Any action he initiates and any decision he makes always has a tinge of folly and fun. As Adviser Education he evolves policies, introduces new academic courses, gives talks on various subjects, and holds press conference. He has hobbies and also reveals some of his eccentricities. On assuming office Pigwick wanted to have a firsthand assessment of the situation facing his portfolio. He started his work in right earnest. He was disgusted to find several undesirable features which required policy changes. Staff and student Indiscipline was at its peak. He remembered what Plato said twenty-five centuries ago. While commenting on democracy Plato had observed that democracy dies of a surfeit of freedom. In a democracy the students refuse to obey the teacher. Even the animals get the contagion so that the horse begins to drive away the way farer from the road. There was the menace of fake degrees and a racket was behind this operation. In addition there was the marks scandal where failed students were given lavish marks to reach the top grades in the final examinations. The staff was sensitive and any disciplinary action even contemplated, resulted in a strike. Students formed groups and clashes were frequent resulting in injuries and hospitalization for some. There was gender conflict due to some students misusing their under carriage inside the campus creating a bad reputation for the institutions. Above all these problems there was acute financial crisis. Pigwick seriously thought about the problems. He was convinced that firm action was called for and this...
