The Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, D.D., offered the following prayer: Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for this beautiful day, token of Thy presence and continued care; for all the longings, hopes, and aspirations which fill our minds and hearts. Help us, we beseech Thee, with renewed faith and confidence to work ever toward the higher ideals, until at last we shall awake in the full consciousness of our likeness to Thee and hear in the fullness of joy the words, Well done, good and faithful servant. And now, O Father, we are called upon to mourn the loss of another one of the congressional family, a man ever active and useful, conspicuous on the floor of this House for his work in State and Nation. Grant, O most merciful Father, to comfort his stricken wife and children, his friends and colleagues, with the blessed hope of the immortality of the soul. And we will ascribe all praise to Thee, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen. Mr. Bingham. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolutions, which I send to the Clerks desk. The Speaker. The Clerk will report the resolutions.
